Sergio is passionate about learning and applying new tech and growth techniques in achieve deals in order to get the brand and product to the next level. Thanks to him we reached and passed 10Million+ a month users in Latam

- Sebastian Valenzuela, SVP General Manager,
Fandango Latam

What Others Say

I have known Sergio for a little over a year when the CEO decided to bring him to the company.

I worked side by side with Sergio on different committees (Digital Transformation, Risks, Credits, Management, and Board meetings) Sergio Tang is not only incredibly qualified and adept in product and growth management, he is also a bright and curious person who is a joy to work with.

- Miguel Ikehara, Operations & Technology
Manager, Vivela

What Others Say

Sergio is one of the top-level professionals in all aspects, technical, human, and strategic. These three pillars in his profile are the explanation for his rapid rise in the corporate world in an industry as competitive as digital. In addition to this, he is an excellent negotiator and, without a doubt, a desirable executive for any corporation that wishes to increase its revenue margins through a digital transformation process.

- Javier Barraza, Director, Spider
